

FROM EUROPE BY CABLE.

MADRID, Oct. 20.—The Moderate and Clerical parties are forming a coalition, and will vote for the same candidates for the Constitutional Cortes.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The Times, in an editorial on the rumored withdrawal of the Democratic Presidential candidates, says: "The Democrats will doubtless think it best to fight the battle to the end, and lose, if it must be, with Governor Seymour at their head, rather than, at so late an hour, take Mr. Chase for their leader."

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The Times, in an editorial on the rumored withdrawal of the Democratic Presidential candidates, says: "The Democrats will doubtless think it best to fight the battle to the end, and lose, if it must be, with Governor Seymour at their head, rather than, at so late an hour, take Mr. Chase for their leader."

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The Times, in an editorial on the rumored withdrawal of the Democratic Presidential candidates, says: "The Democrats will doubtless think it best to fight the battle to the end, and lose, if it must be, with Governor Seymour at their head, rather than, at so late an hour, take Mr. Chase for their leader."

PARIS, Oct. 20.—It is denied that the Emperor favors the elevation of a Spanish prince to the throne of Spain.

BY CUBA CABLE.

HAVANA, Oct. 19.—The determined action of Captain General Lersundi for the prevention of any Cuban filibustering against Mexico has resulted in the departure, yesterday, of General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna for his old home in the Island of St. Thomas.

HAVANA, Oct. 19.—The determined action of Captain General Lersundi for the prevention of any Cuban filibustering against Mexico has resulted in the departure, yesterday, of General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna for his old home in the Island of St. Thomas.

HAVANA, Oct. 19.—The determined action of Captain General Lersundi for the prevention of any Cuban filibustering against Mexico has resulted in the departure, yesterday, of General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna for his old home in the Island of St. Thomas.

HAVANA, Oct. 19.—The determined action of Captain General Lersundi for the prevention of any Cuban filibustering against Mexico has resulted in the departure, yesterday, of General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna for his old home in the Island of St. Thomas.

HAVANA, Oct. 19.—The determined action of Captain General Lersundi for the prevention of any Cuban filibustering against Mexico has resulted in the departure, yesterday, of General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna for his old home in the Island of St. Thomas.

HAVANA, Oct. 19.—The determined action of Captain General Lersundi for the prevention of any Cuban filibustering against Mexico has resulted in the departure, yesterday, of General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna for his old home in the Island of St. Thomas.

HAVANA, Oct. 19.—The determined action of Captain General Lersundi for the prevention of any Cuban filibustering against Mexico has resulted in the departure, yesterday, of General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna for his old home in the Island of St. Thomas.

HAVANA, Oct. 19.—The determined action of Captain General Lersundi for the prevention of any Cuban filibustering against Mexico has resulted in the departure, yesterday, of General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna for his old home in the Island of St. Thomas.

HAVANA, Oct. 19.—The determined action of Captain General Lersundi for the prevention of any Cuban filibustering against Mexico has resulted in the departure, yesterday, of General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna for his old home in the Island of St. Thomas.

HAVANA, Oct. 19.—The determined action of Captain General Lersundi for the prevention of any Cuban filibustering against Mexico has resulted in the departure, yesterday, of General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna for his old home in the Island of St. Thomas.

HAVANA, Oct. 19.—The determined action of Captain General Lersundi for the prevention of any Cuban filibustering against Mexico has resulted in the departure, yesterday, of General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna for his old home in the Island of St. Thomas.

HAVANA, Oct. 19.—The determined action of Captain General Lersundi for the prevention of any Cuban filibustering against Mexico has resulted in the departure, yesterday, of General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna for his old home in the Island of St. Thomas.

HAVANA, Oct. 19.—The determined action of Captain General Lersundi for the prevention of any Cuban filibustering against Mexico has resulted in the departure, yesterday, of General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna for his old home in the Island of St. Thomas.

HAVANA, Oct. 19.—The determined action of Captain General Lersundi for the prevention of any Cuban filibustering against Mexico has resulted in the departure, yesterday, of General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna for his old home in the Island of St. Thomas.

HAVANA, Oct. 19.—The determined action of Captain General Lersundi for the prevention of any Cuban filibustering against Mexico has resulted in the departure, yesterday, of General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna for his old home in the Island of St. Thomas.

HAVANA, Oct. 19.—The determined action of Captain General Lersundi for the prevention of any Cuban filibustering against Mexico has resulted in the departure, yesterday, of General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna for his old home in the Island of St. Thomas.

FROM WASHINGTON.

A Republican Torchlight Procession.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—A torchlight procession was held here to-night in honor of the recent Republican triumphs. Several disturbances occurred along the line of march, in which two members of the police force in this district were severely beaten while endeavoring to preserve order.

The Vacant Brigadier Generalship.

Quite a large number of applications have been made for the office of Brigadier General in the United States army, made vacant by the retirement of General Hooker. Among the applicants are several civilians who were officers of volunteers during the late war.

Internal Revenue Affairs.

There are no present indications of any further appointment of supervisors of internal revenue, beyond the three gentlemen who have already received their commissions and whose names have been published.

The Indian War.

Very few official dispatches have been received in this city lately relative to the war on the plains. The army is known to be on the move, in active pursuit of hostile tribes, but no dispatches concerning its movements have been received at headquarters here for two or three days.

Storekeepers Appointed.

R. T. Miller, Eighth District of Pennsylvania; R. A. Cronin, First District of Pennsylvania; Christian Fidler, Fifteenth District of Pennsylvania.

From Virginia.

DANVILLE, Oct. 20.—The fair of the Border Agricultural Society of Virginia and North Carolina commenced yesterday. The exhibition of machinery and stock, and useful articles, is very fine.

From the Pacific Coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—Generals Angel Martinez and Placido Yriga, of revolutionary notoriety, are reported to have sailed for Mexico yesterday on the Mexican steamer.

From Ohio.

DAYTON, Ohio, Oct. 20.—The Grand Lodge and Council of the Free Masons, which have been in session here for several days, made a grand and impressive demonstration to-day.

From New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The Women's Typographical Union has elected a canal across the Isthmus of Darien, to connect the Caribbean sea with the Pacific ocean, at the residence of Peter Cooper, to discuss the various plans proposed.

From Missouri.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 20.—The largest and most enthusiastic meeting and torchlight procession of the campaign took place last night.

From Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 20.—A convention of railroad conductors, representing many of the leading roads of the country, assembled at the Burnett House to-day, for the purpose of forming a mutual insurance company, by which, in case of death, accident, or otherwise, each conductor belonging to the association should be entitled to a family of one dollar.

From Reading.

READING, Pa., Oct. 20.—The regular annual Fresh-tenants' Convention of Pennsylvania (new School), embracing five Presbyteries, convened in the First Presbyterian Church in this city to-day.

From Massachusetts.

WORCESTER, Oct. 20.—The women's meeting at Orange to-day was attended by eleven companies, numbering over 1000 women.

From Charleston.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 20.—Considerable excitement prevails among the colored population of this city on account of the murder of Randolph, who was well known here.

The Twenty-first Congressional District.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 20.—The Congressional District of this State, which was divided into two parts, today at Greensburg, and split into two parties, sending two separate certificates to the Governor, one declaring Mr. Covode elected by 325 majority, and one electing Foster by 1 majority.

From Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 20.—In an array on Court street to-day a notorious character named John Crograve was stabbed three times and then shot by Thomas O'Donnell, an ex-alderman. O'Donnell was arrested, but was released on proof that he had acted in self-defense. Crograve will probably die.

From Maine.

BATH, Me., Oct. 20.—The third State Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association assembled here to-day. Delegates from every section of the State were present. G. F. Pillsbury, of Lewiston, president.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

[FOR ADDITIONAL LOCAL ITEMS SEE OUTSIDE PAGES.]

THE LATE ELECTION FRAUDS.

The Disgrace Upon our Courts—What the People Think of It.

In response to call, last night, at Concert Hall, was held a mass meeting of citizens, under the auspices of the Union League, for the purpose of continuing the series that will be held until the night of the election of General Grant.

The speaker, Mr. Samuel H. Perkins, to the chair, read the report of the committee on the election of General Grant, and then introduced, and read resolutions as follows:—

Resolved, That the wholesale importation and distribution of ruffians and desperadoes from other States prior to the recent election, under the auspices of the Democratic party, for the purpose of intimidating and illegally voting in the city of Philadelphia were, in many instances, defeated, according to the official returns, and in other cases were deprived of their just and true majority; and

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of good and loyal citizens to protest against the means thus used to defraud the people of the true expression of their will in the selection of officers to manage their affairs; therefore,

the story of the fraud against which we have not to protest to-night. The election held last week prove one thing beyond all question—that a fraud was committed at the public ballot-box. They prove, also, I think, that the fraud was not committed by the Republican party but by the Democratic party. That fact appears from the localities in which this fraud was obviously committed. Let me, then, without further preface, call your attention to a few figures of the elections of 1866 and 1867.

In the Second ward the increase of the Republican vote at the last election, comparing it with the vote of 1866 and 1867, but taking as the larger and more important, the vote of 1866 as the standard of comparison.

In the Third ward—now mark me, my fellow-citizens, I am calling your attention to the Democratic wards, the down-town wards, and I ask you to look at the extraordinary decrease of the Republican vote and the increase of the Democratic vote—there the Republican increase at this election over 1866 was 81 votes, or 6 1/2 per cent. The Democratic increase was 548 votes, or over 28 per cent. (Lansdale.)

In the Fourth ward—the Democratic increase was 445 votes, or twenty per cent. In the Sixth ward the Republican increase was four votes, or nearly one-third of a percentage; the Democratic increase was 266 votes, or 2 1/2 per cent.

In the Seventh ward—now we have gone through the down-town wards, which are strongly Democratic—the Republican increase was 294 votes, or 12 1/2 per cent; the Democratic increase was 149 votes, or 6 1/2 per cent.

In the Eighth ward—still, you observe, they touch the infected locality down town—the Republican increase was 147 votes, or 9 1/2 per cent; the Democratic increase was 210 votes, or 14 per cent.

In the Ninth ward the Republican increase was 185 votes, or 10 1/2 per cent; the Democratic increase was 304, or 20 per cent.

In the Tenth ward—I want you to observe that in this return; this ward is one of those in which the Democrats had very little chance to commit a fraud—the Republican increase was 294 votes, or 11 1/2 per cent; the Democratic increase was 190 votes, or about 7 per cent. Now, you see, there was no chance for fraud; that 11 1/2 per cent represents the voting increase of Philadelphia. Now I come to another infected district, the Eleventh ward. Now look at this. The Fourth ward had better look out for itself, as the Eleventh ward is coming up for its heels. The Republican increase was 32 votes, or 3 per cent; the Democratic increase was 441 votes, or 27 per cent.

In the Fifteenth ward, which, although Republican, has not two Democratic precincts, here I may say that a careful examination of the returns will show that this large percentage on the Democratic vote has been made in the Democratic precinct. The Republican increase was 648 votes, or 33 per cent; the Democratic increase was 640 votes, or 33 per cent.

Now come again to a Democratic ward. In the Sixteenth ward the Republican increase was 73 votes, or a little over 4 per cent; the Democratic increase was 478 votes, or 20 per cent.

In the Seventeenth ward the Republican increase was 152 votes, or 11 per cent; the Democratic increase was 469 votes, or over 35 per cent.

In the Eighteenth ward, where the election on the part of the Republicans was fairly, you find that the Republican increase was 443 votes, or 23 per cent; the Democratic increase was 443 votes, or 23 per cent.

In the Nineteenth ward—we are now getting to the suburban districts, where buildings are increasing rapidly. The Republican increase was 611 votes, or 21 1/2 per cent. The Democratic increase was 627 votes, or 25 1/2 per cent. You see that the opportunity for fraud is not so great in the suburban districts, and hence the ratio of Democratic increase is not so great.

In the Twentieth ward, the last that I have taken, the Republican increase is 1044 votes, or 28 per cent. The Democratic increase is 953 votes, or 26 per cent.

The speaker continued to discuss the subject of frauds at some length, and was frequently greeted with cheers and applause.

David Paul Brown, Esq., offered a resolution that the citizens of Philadelphia should pledge to them in such contest the support and countenance of every honest citizen and true lover of his country.

These resolutions were received with hearty approval. The speaker then proposed a resolution relative to the manner in which the High Sheriff sacrificed himself to the Moloch of the Democratic party was ominous in its demonstrations. When the last resolution was read the speaker said that every sentence uttered here said that the subject was of vital importance to every one having regard for his personal or political rights. We have seen the streets of the city overrun by the rabble of neighboring cities; we have seen the streets of the city overrun by the rabble of neighboring cities; we have seen the streets of the city overrun by the rabble of neighboring cities.

And we are to consider, too, whether the law is to be defiled and justice and equity be ignored by our civil tribunals. The speaker dwelt upon the value of American citizenship to the citizen, and upon the fact that the right of the citizen to the franchise, the power of conferring it was vested in our highest courts. And how it has been disregarded! It has been a mere question whether it took twenty-five or thirty-five votes to confer an election upon an American citizen. (Long cheering.) Tens of thousands of such false naturalizations were scattered throughout the city and State, and it is natural that this vast gathering should declare themselves in favor of the subject of the rights of citizenship. Every citizen should be protected in his rights, and the vote of all true citizens, native and adopted, should be protected.

Hon. James Pollock was the next speaker. He warmly welcomed by the assembly. He heartily endorsed the resolutions. He was always ready to bow to the will of the people as expressed at the ballot-box, but would never consent that any part of the election carried by fraud and corruption should stand as the verdict of the people without a contest. (Cheers.) And he was satisfied that it was the duty of every good citizen to contest, from the seat of the Mayor down, the claim of the Democrats to the right of office. (Sustained applause.) Solemnly the speaker expressed the belief that every candidate upon the Republican ticket was elected by at least ten thousand majority. (Prolonged applause.)

Everything that gives dignity to the rights of the American citizen has been nullified. The speaker would welcome the seeker for liberty from wherever he came, but protested against the sale of the franchise, and the sale of the franchise by fraud and perjury. He protested against the fraud that has disgraced the highest tribunal of the State. (Cheers.) He protested against the bringing of ruffians here from Baltimore to be used as a tool to defraud the people of New York, to neutralize the votes of our own people. Shall these elections be contested? (Loud cries of "Yes.") Are you willing to stand by the authorities in the contest, and help them to execute the law when it has gone forth? (Resounding cheers.)

The speaker closed with a beautiful picture of what would be the result if, despite the blood of three hundred thousand noble men, this country were to give up its right of suffrage to the world, and its flag to degradation.

Titan J. Coffey, Esq., was then introduced and said:—

Mr. President and Fellow-citizens—I confess that I am embarrassed, standing before you, by the eloquent and truly able speech from your Governor Pollock; but I have come here to-night not to glorify with you, as we might well do, over the victory we have realized over our enemies, and it is about that I desire to speak to you. I have compared the statistics of the recent election with the elections of the last year or two, and it seems to me that they tell on Highways, of Councils, have paid an official visitation to the vicinity of old Camp Calloway, in the Twenty-eighth ward, containing over one hundred acres, and now owned by the City and County Cottage Company, and reported in favor of straddling and improving several streets in the vicinity, among them being the following:—Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth streets, from Columbia avenue to Susquehanna avenue; Diamond street, from Twentieth to Twenty-third; Norris street, from Twentieth to Ridge avenue; sidewalks on Twenty-second street, from Columbus avenue to Twenty-third street, and other like improvements. The property of the Company referred to represents over two thousand building lots, from 17 to 27 feet in width by 75 to 100 feet in depth, and is within the boundaries of Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, and Columbia avenues. Owing to the rapidity with which white rows of buildings are being erected in this vicinity, together with the excessive demand for the same, Councils are making the necessary improvement of resurfacing the streets named, and the City Council, and resolutions in accordance therewith will be introduced at the meeting to-morrow.

Highway Improvements.—The Committee

ORDER OF AMERICAN MECHANICS.—The State Council of Pennsylvania, O. U. A. M., commenced its annual session yesterday, at Mechanics' Hall, Fourth and George streets. State Councils of the State are organized in 176 subordinate bodies. The following officers for the year were installed:—G. C. George, W. Jenkins, No. 13; J. W. Quigg, No. 27; S. C. John P. Batt, No. 36; State Treasurer, John Kridler, No. 44; Inductors, P. A. Libe, No. 37; Examiner, William M. Schultz, No. 13; Protector, John Server, No. 32; Recording Secretary, John W. Quigg, No. 27; Henry Lomas, No. 15. Last evening the representatives from the different portions of the State were handsomely entertained by the members of the Order in the City. Toasts were given and a grand supper was given by Messrs. W. Jenkins, E. E. Snyder, Mr. Rowe, Stewart, Wylie, A. S. Redstrake, and others.

A SUICIDE.—The Coroner held an inquest yesterday on the body of John Hock, who died at the Pennsylvania Hospital, on Monday evening, from the effects of gunshot wounds received on Saturday morning last, at his house, No. 449 North Second street. The coroner testified to the fact of Hock shooting his wife while she was attempting to enter the house, from which she had been driven, to get her child, and then shooting himself in the head, he having placed a revolver in the gun in his mouth, and moved the trigger with his foot. The jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

CASUALTIES.—Warren Jones, 40 years old, residing in Curtin alley, had an arm broken yesterday by bricks falling from a building on him.

John Hamilton, 46 years old, residing at Thirteenth and Buttonwood streets, had one of his arms severely injured yesterday.

John Reigstein, residing at No. 615 North Front street, had all the fingers of one of his hands cut off yesterday morning by a circular saw, at a mill in St. John street, above Willow.

SAD BURNING.—Florence Vallance, about twelve years old, whose parents reside in McMillan street, below Fifth, was burned by her clothes catching fire on Monday night last, at her home in the city. Her parents were absent at the time, and it is not known how the clothes of the unfortunate girl took fire, but it is believed to have been from the ignition of matches in her pocket. The fire was discovered by a neighbor who ran from the house in her alarm, and before she could be overtaken was burned in a terrible manner.

THE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.—A monthly meeting of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society was held last evening in Horticultural Hall. There was on exhibition a neat collection of plants, and also some handsome and desirable specimens of large pears from dwarf trees, and a fine display of different varieties of grapes. Premiums were awarded for these by the Society, and after transacting the usual routine of business the meeting adjourned.

DIED OF HIS INJURIES.—Patrick Dempsey, who was shot on the 4th instant, at his residence, No. 630 Catharine street, died yesterday, from the effects of his injuries, at the Hospital. The unfortunate occurrence grew out of the description of Dempsey from the United States military service. He was arrested at his home, and, resisting or attempting to escape, was shot in the thigh. The coroner will hold an inquest on the body to-morrow.

FATAL GUNNING ACCIDENT.—A young man, named Thomas Turner, who resided at No. 37 Pine street, was killed yesterday by the accidental discharge of his fowling piece while gunning in the woods near the city. He was climbing a tree at one of the wharves below the city, drawing his gun after him, when the trigger was touched. The load passed into his neck, causing instant death.

MARINE TELEGRAPH.

For additional Marine News see First Page.

ALBANY FOR PHILADELPHIA—THIS DAY, via Boston, 12 1/2; via New York, 12 1/2; via New York, 12 1/2; via New York, 12 1/2.

PHILADELPHIA BOARD OF TRADE.

EDWARD A. STUBBS, President.

GEORGE L. RUBY, Vice-President.

JOHN W. QUIGG, Secretary.

JOHN W. QUIGG, Secretary.